

SHEDDING:

New carpeting, especially cut pile, will shed little bits of fibre for a period of time. Eventually, these loose fibres will be taken up in the vacuum cleaner. Shedding is more common with wool than with nylon or other synthetics.