

SPROUTING:

Sprouting is a term used when long pile tufts emerge above the normal pile surface. Simply clip the extended yarn tufts with sharp scissors. Don't try to pull them out since you may also pull other fibres out in the process.